INVESTMENT IN ONLINE HISTORICAL DICTIONARY GIVES CANADIANS TOOL TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THEIR COUNTRY'S HISTORY: MP KRAMP

Belleville, ON – Daryl Kramp, Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings invites his constituents to use The Dictionary of Canadian Biography Online, a project that recently received renewed investment from the Government of Canada.

“I am pleased that our government have reinvested in this useful historical online dictionary”, said Mr. Kramp. “It is important that the details of our Country’s rich history is appreciated and known by Canadians for years to come and this project is a wonderful and easily accessible tool to facilitate that learning”.

The Dictionary of Canadian Biography Online provides users with reliable, easily readable accounts of the lives and times of the individuals who contributed to Canada's history, and currently includes over 8,400 biographies in French and English, covering Canadian history from 1000 to 1930.

The Government of Canada has provided funding of $3 million over 3 years through the Canadian Studies Program of the Department of Canadian Heritage, a program which encourages Canadians to gain a better understanding of their country by learning about its history, stories, people and systems of Government.

The Dictionary of Canadian Biography Online can be accessed on the Internet by visiting: www.biographi.ca
