KRAMP UNANIMOUSLY RE-ELECTED AS CHAIR TO CANADA-CHINA LEGISLATIVE ASSOCIATION

Ottawa: Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings, Daryl Kramp, has been re-elected as Chair to the key Canada-China Legislative Association.

Last week, Mr. Kramp was elected unanimously by other members of the Association which is comprised of MPs and Senators from all political parties.

"I am very honoured that my colleagues have reelected me as Chair of this extremely important Association", said Mr. Kramp. "I have always worked with my colleagues in this Association in a non-partisan manner and I believe that went a long way to establishing trust and credibility for my role as Chair."

The Canada-China Legislative Association provides a forum for the discussion of bilateral and multilateral challenges facing the two countries.
