MP Kramp: Copyright legislation balances the needs of creators and users

Belleville, Ontario – Daryl Kramp, Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings, welcomes the recent reintroduction of the Government of Canada’s Copyright Modernization Act.

“On one side of the scale there are the creators, and on the other the users”, said Mr. Kramp. “There should be a balance between users needs and creators rights. This bill strikes that balance and modernizes Canada copyright laws for the digital world in which we live today.”

Modernizing Canada’s copyright laws is an important part of the the Government of Canada’s strategy for the digital economy. The rise of social media and new technologies have changed the way in which Canadians create and use copyrighted material.
