MP KRAMP ENCOURAGES CONSTITUENTS TO TAKE PART IN PRE-BUDGET CONSULTATIONS

Belleville, ON - Daryl Kramp, Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings, welcomes last Friday's announcement by Finance Minister Jim Flaherty that pre-budget consultations have now been launched across the country.

"Budget 2012 will have two main agendas, one being a focus on jobs and the economy and the other being a return to balance", said Mr. Kramp. "Our government wishes to hear from all Canadians – their ideas and thoughts how we can best deliver on these issues."

Cross-country in-person consultations with the Honourable Jim Flaherty will continue into the New Year and venues will be announced as they become available.

MP Kramp encourages those constituents who are not able to attend in-person consultations, to take part in the online consultation feature available on the Ministry of Finance website: <http://www.fin.gc.ca/prebudget-prebudgetaire/1-eng.asp> .
