MP Kramp reminds constituents: Public input deadline approaching for Pre-Budget Consultation Hearings

Belleville, ON— Daryl Kramp, Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings, wishes to remind constituents that the deadline to submit recommendations for the government’s annual pre-budget consultations is nearly here.

“The Parliament of Canada’s Standing Committee on Finance is inviting all Canadian individuals, businesses and organizations to participate in this process”, said Mr. Kramp. “Submissions help form the Committee’s pre-budget recommendations, many of which have been reflected in federal budgets of years past.”

July 29th is the deadline to apply to appear in person, and August 12th is the deadline for written submissions.

To appear in person, constituents need to contact the Clerk of the Standing Committee on Finance, by phone at 613-992-9753 or by email at fina@parl.gc.ca. Provide your name or your group’s name along with an address, phone number or email. Also indicate your three preferred locations to appear.

To make a written submission, contact the Clerk of the Standing Committee on Finance by phone at 613-992-9753 or by email at fina@parl.gc.ca. Submissions should be no more than 5 pages in length, with up to three recommendations that reflect your ideas on taxes, potential new investments, or cost savings related to the federal government. Please send the Clerk of the Standing Committee on Finance (see contact info below) your submission (along with your contact information) before August 12th.

“I invite all my constituents to submit their input as soon as possible and, if they wish, they can drop them off at my office at 1 Millennium Parkway in Belleville”, said Mr. Kramp. “By participating in this process you are making your voice heard.”
