MP KRAMP: SOUTH KOREAN DECISION TO REOPEN BEEF MARKET GOOD FOR LOCAL CATTLE FARMERS

Belleville, ON — Daryl Kramp, Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings welcomes the recent announcement by South Korea that they will reopen their markets to Canadian beef and cattle.

“Our government has been tirelessly working to create and maximize global markets for our safe, high quality Canadian beef”, said Mr. Kramp. “It is great news for local beef producers that South Korea has reopened its doors to our beef exports.”

South Korea is Canada’s seventh largest merchandise trading partner and our third largest in Asia, after China and Japan.
