MP Kramp wants you to celebrate National Child Day by honouring an outstanding educator!

Belleville –November 20th, 2010, marks the 21st Anniversary of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child which spells out the basic human rights to which children and youth everywhere are entitled.

MP Kramp said, “Several thousand years ago, Cicero said ‘What nobler employment, or more valuable to the state, than that of the man who instructs the rising generation.’ This statement is still true today and I encourage all of my constituents to nominate a teacher they feel has gone above and beyond in their dedication to education and our young generation.”

Daryl Kramp, Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings, believes National Child Day is a great time to think about recognizing an educator that has made a difference in your child's life. The program honours outstanding educators from across Canada who excel at fostering the early development and socialization of children in their care. These awards are unique as they are the only national awards for early childhood educators.

The 2010 guidelines and nomination forms for the Prime Minister's Awards (PMAs) for Excellence in Early Childhood Education and Teaching Excellence are now available online at www.pma.gc.ca. Applications must be received by the Prime Minister's Awards for Teaching Excellence office by December 15, 2010.

If you know an exceptional early childhood educator that you feel deserves national recognition, Mr. Kramp encourages you to visit the website address above to find out more about the Prime Minister's Awards.
