Annual Warriors' Day in Coe Hill Reaches All Ages

September 5, 2010

Coe Hill, Ontario — Daryl Kramp, Member of Parliament for Prince Edward-Hastings, on behalf of The Honourable Jean-Pierre Blackburn, Minister of Veterans Affairs, attended Warrior's Day and laid a wreath to honour those who gave their lives in service to their country.

“Warrior's Day is an important Canadian tradition that honours our Veterans and brave men and women who continue to serve today”, said Mr. Kramp.

The Government of Canada is committed to preserving the memory of Veterans and those who made the ultimate sacrifice through funding for commemorative initiatives such as the annual Warriors' Day in Coe Hill.
